Hollaback! provides confidential coaching and training to political candidates, legislators, and their staff. Our team understands exactly what you need to shape your anti-harassment policies, train your staff, and manage meaningful responses to harassment in the office and in the public eye.

EACH CLIENT WE TAKE ON RECEIVES A CUSTOM EXPERIENCE TAILORED TO THEIR NEEDS.

Over the past two years, Hollaback! has trained over 10,000 people in how to respond to harassment -- and worked with organizations both domestically and internationally. Our holistic offerings bolster your organizational culture.

Prevention and Response Planning. We'll review your current policies and procedures and ensure that they are in line with best practices to set your office up for success. In the event that sexual harassment occurs on your team, we'll ensure that your team is trained to do an investigation.

Training for Employees. We'll provide your staff, consultants, and interns a robust, interactive sexual harassment training that is customized to the unique challenges that political campaigns and offices face -- including an exploration of online harassment and power dynamics.

Hollaback! is a thriving operation with a team deeply passionate about shifting the culture of harassment through legal policy, shaping harassment-free work environments, and strengthening interpersonal relationships inside and outside of the workplace.
